(For the Roundabout.)
An Evening on a Bay.

DEDICATED TO RUTH AND LETTIE.

A deep drawn gladness surges
through my soul
As, floating on this watery main,
I watch the glories of the evening
roll
Eastward across the heavenly plain.
What wondrous vision dawns upon my sight?
The glorious path of poetry
With thousand, thousand beauties grandly bright
Slopes gently downward to the sea.
Would I could cast this carnal robe
aside,
This robe, oppressive as despair,
And upward rise, and for a space abide Within yon valley fresh and fair.
Amid a stillness all unbroken save
The music of the passing day,
And the soft sob of each lost-appealing wave
My soul ascends the rosy way.

Strewn in my path are fragrant flowers and rare,
All fit to deck the fairest bride;
Rich crimson columns sparkle here and there
Gold staccatos gleam on every side.
Here fiery banners shed a dazzling
sheen,
A sheet reflected on the sea.
Oh tell what glories cannot now be seen!
What's wanting to the harmony?
Hush! sweeter than a dream of buried bliss,
Far sweeter than a baby's smile,
Yes, sweeter than a loving mother's kiss, Murmurs yonder plaintive viol.

Attempted to the maiden's mellow lay,
Just as when half asleep, we hear
A voice close by that sounds far, far away,
So sounds her song, yet fresh and clear.
Once more I drink the sparkling joys of youth,
Joys flavored by all mellowing
time;
Once more I am a lad wild and uncouth,
Once more I trees and fences climb.
Once more I roam o'er meadows,
clamber hills,
And gaze down on the farms below
Once more I sit beside the wind-kissed rills,
And listen to their chiming flow.

She sings with deeper feeling, I recall
How dandied on my father's knee,
I caught his laughing eyes and smiled
withal,
And suddenly hugged him lovingly.

I see my sister at the cottage door,
I hear her joyous silvery laugh;
I see my old grandfather, gray and hoar,
Low bending to his crooked staff.

A hymn to Eros softens on the air,
And waits me to my boyhood love;
Sweet vows of constancy to her I swear,
Sweet vows unregistered above.

Each cheek is like a modest little rose
That from its hood half blushing peers,
As I, at man's estate my love disclose,
And ask her share my hopes and fears.

Ah! she consented, but before the hour
Had come for her to be mine own,
An angel plucked this pure and priceless flower
And bore it to the heavenly throne.

Woe me! I stand beside a grassy mound—
Years past I saw her laid to rest—
Now lovely, spotless lilies pierce the ground,
All fostered at her virgin breast.

Now swells her song, a deep and solemn tone
That back and forth and back is rolled;
A lingering, dying note and I'm alone,
Down wafted from the realm of gold.

A sadness slowly sinks into my soul
As, floating on this watery main,
I watch the gloomy darkness softly
roll
Westward across the heavenly plain.

The stars are twinkling, and the moon's pale rays
Now summers through a silvery bower;
Inspired with awe and love I render praise
Unto the great Almighty Power, FANCIES.

Proclamation of Health Board.

The Board of Health for the city of Frankfort, Ky., this 28th day of July, 1899, do make and publish the following proclamation:

1st. That the city of Frankfort is in an unsanitary condition to such an extent as to threaten the health of its citizens, and possibly the lives of many, from an epidemic of some form of PREVENTABLE disease.

2d. It is ordered that all premises, both public and private, be immediately cleaned up of all garbage, waste, ashes, or any other kind of refuse or decaying vegetable or animal matter; that all weeds and noc-uous vegetable growths shall be cut and removed; that all sewers, drains, sinks and all other foul and dirty places shall be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected.

3d. That all back fences and out-buildings shall be whitewashed (unless said whitewashing has been recently done); that is, the just spring or prelate summer.

4th. That all water-closets, cesspools or other such places or conveniences, used for such purposes, outside the dwelling-house or on the back premises of any building used for a store-room or otherwise, or any livery or private stable, or any manure pit, shall be cleaned during the night time, unless for special reason the Board of Health shall give permission for special cleansing during the daytime, defining and enforcing the proper restrictions.

5th. That a water closet shall be considered properly cleaned, if outside a dwelling, when a new pit shall have been dug, the dirt removed to be thrown into the old pit, and house or blind shall have been placed over the newly dug pit, or if such removal be not desirable, the vault may be emptied and carted off in the night time, and the premises and vault properly disinfected in such a manner as shall meet the approval of the inspectors, and not otherwise.

6th. That all cellars, whether in private dwellings or places of business, or in public buildings, shall be opened to a proper and convenient time of the day, due regard being observed as to the privacy and proper respect to the owners and residents, and must be cleansed and disinfected to the approval of the Health Board.

7th. That the sewer leading from the State prison, opened on the surface, within a thickly settled portion of the city, within its limits and is uncovered for quite a distance, it is ordered that the same be so repaired that all of its length, to a point on the river below low water mark, shall be covered and securely protected from the escape of sewer gas.

8th. That all contractors for street improvement shall, within the prescribed limit of time from this date, remove all debris, stones and dirt, or other refuse and unnecessary and unsightly refuse and building material. The time shall be determined by the Health Board, in which all such above named nuisance shall be abated, and in no instance shall the time exceed two weeks or fourteen days from this date.

9th. That all streets and alleys shall be properly and speedily cleaned; all sewers and gutters cleaned and flushed within the prescribed time of fourteen days from date hereof.

10th. That all streets and alleys now in process of repair or construction shall be rapidly pushed to completion, and, if unnecessary delay is continued and maintained, in the opinion of the Board of Health, a fine shall be named for the completion of the same by the said Board of Health, and, failing to comply, said parties, contractors or corporations shall be notified of a specified day on which work must be completed.
Failing to comply with this demand, legal proceedings shall be at once instituted.

11th. That these, and all other proper conditions and requirements, will be enforced and put in a proper sanitary condition.

12th. The Board of Health assures the citizens that the public safety demands the enforcement of the above and all other needed requirements;
that this proclamation has been submitted to the proper authorities and other and competent legal authority, and its provisions are assured to be clearly within the requirements of law and within the power and jurisdiction of the Health Board; and, as in the case of compulsory vaccination and removal to the hospital of cases of smallpox, suspected to be detention camp, will be rigidly and without favor, and to all alike, vigorously enforced.

13th. That the Inspectors shall be the Health Officer of the city, who shall be a physician, the Marshal of the city, and such other help as may be deemed necessary by the Board of Health.

14th. That 14 days, or until the 10th day of August, shall be allowed for the compliance with this proclamation. After this time failure to comply will be enforced by law.

Health Notes.

Asparagus purifies the blood.
Tomatoes act upon the liver.
Celery is good for the nerves.
Beets and turnips are excellent appetizers.

Lettuce and cucumbers are cooling in their effect upon the system.
Spinach and dandelion have a direct effect upon kidney complaint.

When hoarse speak as little as possible until the hoarseness disappears, else the voice may be permanently injured or troubles of the throat be produced.

Onions stimulate the circulatory system, increase the gastric juice, promoting digestion. Red onions are an excellent diuretic, and white ones are recommended for insomnia.

In case of fainting place the patient in a horizontal position, with the head low; sprinkle cold water on face, neck and chest; loosen the clothing and expose patient to fresh air.

For the eyebrows—rub pure grease or a little coconut oil every night.
The rubbing should be done in the shape of an arch from the nose to the outer corner of the eye. Eyebrows that meet are very ugly.

For stings of insects examine the parts with a magnifying glass, and if the sting is left in the wound extract it with a small pair of tweezers or a sharp penknife. Then apply diluted ammonia, camphor or baking soda moistened.

It is usually a sign of ill health when the nails crack and split. Rub in cold cream or vaseline at night; it will soften and nourish them and remove the dull, shabby look which is seen on the nails of most delicate people.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures, have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Quaint Question.

There is a bright little boy of some four or five summers, living on the South Side, in this city, who is very fond of rich milk and cream, and who has never seen a cow milked.

One day last week he turned to his grandfather at the table and said:
"Pa, who don't you buy us a cow that lays cream?" Imagine the explosion that followed.

Place in Receiver's Hands.

Upon motion of creditors the Home Brewing Co., of this city, was placed in the hands of W. H. Posey, as receiver, on Saturday, by Judge J. E. Cantrell. The papers were filed and arguments in the case heard by Judge Cantrell sitting in chambers at Georgetown.

Irritating stings, bites, scratches, wounds and capsoothed and healed
by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve—sure and safe application for tortured flesh. Beware of counterfeiters. J. E.
Tyler.

What seems foolish and absurd has been reduced to a feat of skill and science. We refer to the high wheel drive at the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12.

It is performed from a tower 42 feet high, the leap being made into a pool but 10 feet deep. While hazardous, the diver has made many successful leaps before thousands of wondering audiences. It is thrilling in the extreme.

DYSPEPSIA CURED!

AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

A Safe, Sure and Permanent cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Catarrh of the Stomach, Flatulency, Palpitation, Fermentation, Heart Burn and Constipation.

Read the following reason for using American Dyspepsia Tablets

All other remedies claiming to cure indigestion and dyspepsia contain PEPSIN in one of its forms, and as long as PEPSIN is supplied to a weak, or even healthy stomach in the shape of medicine, nature will cease to make it, and the DYSPEPSIA will not be able to do without his "DOSE," and of course never be cured of his trouble. A stomach that will promptly digest food must make its own PEPSIN and not rely upon medicine for this most important agent.

American Dyspepsia Tablets contain no PEPSIN nor other PEPTIC agents, but are composed of four old and well-known vegetable remedies which, in combination, will soon effect a cure by restoring the stomach to its normal condition.

We furnish no book on the "STOMACH and its DISEASES," so ALMANAC, no prize for the LARGEST number of wrappers, but will send a trial box to any address free of cost.

AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLETS are put up in 50c. packages, and are to be had at J. W. Gayle's and W. H. Averill's, or by addressing

THE AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLET CO.,

A regular Convention was called to meet at Lexington on Wednesday, August 16, to nominate a State ticket in opposition to that nominated at Louisville in June.

Some forty or more counties were represented.

Five famous diving and bucking elks are on the daily program of the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival. They daintily jump from a tower 42 feet high and alight right side up into a pool but 10 feet deep. These same elks have been trained to ride and in this exhibition they buck like bronchos. They exhibit each day during the Fair, Aug. 8-12.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that a special examination will be held by its post-office board of examiners in the city and on the date named above, commencing at 9 a. m., for the positions of clerk and carrier in the post-office in that city.

Only citizens of the United States may be examined. The examination will consist of spelling, arithmetic, letter writing, penmanship, copying from plain copy, geography of the United States and reading addresses. The arithmetic will consist of tests in the fundamental principles, extending as far as common and decimal fractions and embracing problems.

The age limitations for this examination are as follows: Clerk, not less than 18 years; carrier, between 21 and 40 years. Applicants for carrier must weigh at least 125 pounds, must be not less than 5 feet 4 inches high, and must file with their applications a medical certificate, on Form 119, showing them to be not under the required weight and height, and to possess the required physical qualifications.

No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed in complete form with the board at the postoffice in the city named above, before the hour of closing business on Aug. 26, 1899.

Applications should be filed promptly; in order that time may remain for correction if necessary.

This examination is open to all citizens of the United States who may desire to enter the service, and who comply with the requirements; all such persons are invited to apply, but attention is invited to the fact that it is the practice of the Post-office Department in making appointments to the grades of clerk and carrier to give preference to those eligibles who are legal residents of the city and vicinity where the examination is held. Subject to this preference application will be examined, graded and certified, with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to any consideration save their ability as shown by the grade they attain in the examination.

For application blanks (Forms 101 and 119), full instructions, specimen examination questions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply to the secretary of the board of examiners at the postoffice in the city named above.

J. M. WILLIAMS, Sec'y Board of Examiners, Frankfort, Ky., August 1, 1899.

Zilpah.

The drouth and hot weather still continue.

Health very good; business dull; leading the principal thing on the program.

Wheat threshing over, yield moderate; quality medium.

Weddings numerous. Among the many are Mr. Walter Nelson and Miss Clara Stivers, both of this community, who eloped to Madison, Ind., last week and were united in the bonds of matrimony. Long may they live to enjoy a happy life.

Mr. Markie Barden and Miss Lynn were joined in the bonds of holy matrimony the past week. This is the third time in the past two years for the groom. Who can beat it?

Mrs. Cill Green, of Milltown, was the guest of her father, Mr. J. T. Moore, the past week.

Mr. J. C. Moore, of Scrabble, is having a new cellar built.

The meeting at Indian Fork closed last week with thirty odd additions. Bro. Hill, who conducted the meeting with Bro. Powers, the pastor, delivered a series of able sermons. Much good was accomplished.

The meeting at Lebanon is in progress, conducted by Rev. John Adkins, the pastor, and Rev. Mr. Kuykendall, who is an able speaker. A general revival is looked for and much good is hoped to be accomplished.

Mr. J. B. Moore, wife and son, Master Clay, were the guests of Mr. Owen Moore and Mr. Tike Vannatter, of West Frankfort, Thursday and Friday.

Here we come Papa's Lost Boy. How about the two suns at Midday, or is it possible your eyes were in eclipse, or was it a hallucination of the mind? Give us an explanation on the subject, and relieve our minds of great forebodings. Come to the front, wipe away your tears and let's hear from you.

Hackberry.

The thermometer did not indicate any danger of strokes Sunday morning.

Mrs. Allen B. Hancock, of Covington, is visiting relatives and friends in these parts.

Mr. Francis Adams and family, of Frankfort, were guests of Dr. John F. Adams last week.

Miss Ruth and Hettie Robinson, of Miss Ruth, attended divine service at Indian Fork Church last week.

Mr. J. Snook and wife visited Mrs. Snook, near Gallatin, last Saturday. They met their daughters, Jewett and Cynthia Snook there, who had been visiting near Eminence several days, and brought them home.

Miss Idalia O'Nan will begin a ten months term of teaching in Bagdad Sept. 1st. Miss Ida is a first class teacher.

Uncle Jimmie Robinson is very low at his home in Jeffersonville. He received a stroke of paralysis a few days since, and considering his advanced age and infirmities generally, there is little or no hope of his recovery. He voted for Jackson for President.

Mr. Oscar Morris, who has been in health for some time, at his home in Jeffersonville, Ind., is at his mother's (Mrs. Mattie Miles) and will not return until he feels able to resume business again.

Miss Nevada Conquest, who has been visiting friends and relatives in these parts, will return to her home in Louisville Saturday, leaving behind her one who will most undoubtedly feel sad for a while on her way. A right willful "Fess up."

Isiah Wade says that he has abandoned all hopes of getting married, and says that he don't see why he can't get married as agler men than he is get married. We can't see it in that light, Isiah.

Mr. John C. Allen sold 17 hids. of tobacco last week that was grown on John and A. Thomas' farm and by John E. Moore, at $16.50 from the ground up. This is rather the best average we have heard of. He made over $200 on the investment.

Harlow Bros. shipped 13 hids last week, but the prices not being satisfactory, they rejected the sales.

We can boast of the best country choir that any country church can produce at Indian Fork, with Prof. Leroy Johnson leader and W. D. Duncan tenor singer. All we lack is Mr. David True, of Jet Station, on the bass, to complete it.

The protracted services closed at Indian Fork last Friday night with 30 for baptism and 1 restored. Rev. T. B. Hill, who did the preaching, is an able divine and powerful preacher. Notwithstanding the church was crowded to its utmost capacity on several occasions, and as many more on the outside, he had the very best of order, and every one, both saint and sinner, was deeply impressed. He will preach the introductory sermon at Beech Ridge Association, and all who enjoy a good sermon will certainly miss one if they fail to hear him on that occasion. The emigrants were baptized by him in J. H. Snook's pond, in the presence of 500 or 1,000 witnesses. We read Talmage and have heard Hill. We are satisfied with him, as we think him second to no one.

Success to the dear old ROUNDABOUT.

Come, Observer, I know you are through feeding off of those fish. So get your quill and shove us a few items. Always glad to hear from you. CARUTEM.

Snakes Catch Rats.

As the writer was sitting out under the broad piazza at the restaurant, taking coffee after dinner, his eyes happened to be turned upward. About ten feet above his head there was a broad beam, probably 18 inches square, the horizontal support of the second story. Directly above, looking down at the group below, was the head of an immense snake ten feet away. The end of his tail was carelessly hanging over the beam's side.

The writer gave one jump, landing six feet away, exclaiming: "Good heavens, Partridge!" (our consultant at Manila, temporarily in charge of American matters at Iloilo).

"What is it?" he asked, not moving from his comfortable American cane-seated rocker.

"Why, just over your head."

"Sit down here," he said to me. "That snake came here when this house was put here. There are three or four others of his kind here besides. Without these snakes the low-lying town would be uninhabitable. They keep the house absolutely clear and free from rats, mice, roaches, waterbugs, an occasional tarantula or scorpion. He sends a stranger as quickly as would a detective. He knows you are. But as you are with me it will be all right. He and I are acquainted."

And then Partridge called up something in Tagalose and in a few moments he moved away.

"Bliss! Oh yes, and seriously, too, if fooled with. He can inflict serious wounds with his fine, sharp teeth. But he has no poison fangs."

Two or three evenings after that I witnessed how he operated. A great coal-black rat was coming along on a beam just below the one occupied by his snakeship. As he came opposite to me a big serpent's black and yellow spotted head shot out four or five feet away. He seized that rat as a cat would between his jaws. Next day as I passed this snake fast asleep in the hot sun I noticed a rattlesnake enlargement or expansion on his diaphragm. I knew where that rat was.

Hamilton Clark, of Chaucery, Ga., says he suffered with itching piles six weeks ago, but after trying Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, two boxes of which completely cured him. Beware of worthless and dangerous counterfeits. J. E. Tyler.

Hottest of the Year.

Wednesday was the hottest day of the year, the thermometer registering 100° in the shade. At night the heat was terrible and at 12:30 a. m. the thermometer showed 91°. Many persons slept but little and were almost exhausted.

The Gushing Girl.

"I'm glad," said a small boy, after witnessing his sister's leavetaking with a friend, "that I'm not a girl. They're all skirt, hairpins and gush."

Now, a girl sometimes condemns the skirts and hairpins, but does she ever condemn the gushing habit she and her schoolmates cultivate? Does she understand that what they call enthusiasm other people label—like the small boy—"gush."

It is so easy to drift into an extravagant way of talking. Adjectives and adverbs that hover on the tip of a girl's tongue are recklessly scattered about in her conversation until the charitable among her listeners call her a "gusher" and the harsher critics an "exaggerator."

Don't gush, girls. Loo off here and there the highly colored expression, the bit of slang, no matter how helpful it seems to be in piecing out your meaning, until you have weeded out from your conversation little tricks of talking that make sensible people doubt your sincerity.

There's nothing sweeter in a girl than sincerity of thought, sincerity of purpose and sincerity of expression. Nobody will credit you with these as long as you indulge in the gushing habit.

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, AUG. 5, 1899

TAKE NOTICE.

Epidemic Over.

It is agreed by the Board of Health that all regular and usual religious services be allowed in all churches in the city and county from this date, requesting all ministers, for the present, to discourage all unusual gatherings.

U. V. WILLIAMS, Ch'n,
E. E. HUME,
G. W. CHINN, Sec'y,
Board of Health.

August 4, 1899.

Unjust Statement.

In the Lexington Leader, of Sunday, we regret to see a statement in regard to the small-pox, which has been prevailing in this city for several weeks, which is grossly untrue in many points. In the first place, there have not been from five to eight cases developed daily.

Next there have been more cases among the whites than among the colored. There has been no attempt to keep the matter quiet; but, on the contrary, there has been a bulletin of the exact status printed every day.

All the available space in the hospital quarters was not exhausted on Saturday.

It was given out precisely how many cases were confined at the hospital and every facility was afforded to give knowledge of the number of cases in the city.

The total number, not only of cases, but of suspects, was published and does not reach up anything like the Leader's informant has stated.

There is no panic over the matter. Business is proceeding right along, and every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and the very precautions taken have been distorted by this wild-eyed gentleman into almost malicious misrepresentations.

The authorities have the matter well in hand and there is a decline in cases and suspects right along.

You always have "to go away from home to hear the news" about such matters, and here we have it with a vengeance.

We trust the Leader will make the proper corrections.

Be Sure You are Right.

We regret to see that our friends of the Anderson News, in their panic over small-pox and Lawrenceburg's quarantine, have gone out of their way to misrepresent affairs. In their issue they state that the newspapers of this city had attempted to suppress the real facts as regards that matter.

So far is this from being the fact, if the editors had been as anxious to get at the facts as they were to distort, they would have known that a daily bulletin is issued by the Health Board and printed broadcast.

They also try to make it appear that the Roundabout had joined in this attempt, and reprint, without any explanation, two paragraphs from our paper. The first stating that there need be no fear, on the part of our country friends, when coming to this city to attend to business, and the second the order of the Council suspending church services until further notice.

The real fact was that this was done as a precaution for the protection of the very class of people whom we were inviting to attend to business, not to attend general assemblies of people.

As further evidence of the truth of our paragraph, business is being attended to by our citizens and our country friends and there are now no cases of small-pox in the city.

We trust that the editors aforesaid, in their zeal to attract trade to Lawrenceburg, will be just enough to give a true statement, and not misrepresent affairs here.

Daily publication has been made of the exact facts, and no suppression permitted.

Two More Burglaries.

A burglar broke into the Postal Telegraph office through a back window Sunday night and run maged through the cash drawer, breaking open a tin box in which Manager Duane Sinclair usually keeps the cash. However, he had put the cash in the safe and thus saved it.

Mr. Fred Gordon's house was entered on Sunday night. He lives on the South Side. A shot or two sent the rascal scurrying away without securing any booty.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Burglary.

On Friday night a burglar, who seemed to be familiar with the premises, broke into the store of Mr. John C. Mastin, on Main street, and, taking a brace and bit, bored into the cash drawer. As good luck would have it Mr. Mastin had put all the money in his safe, some $150. Bored into his search the burglar took a 44 Smith & Wesson revolver from the show case and decamped.

Mr. Mastin says the revolver was all that he has mislaid as yet.

Death of Mrs. Kate Overton Green.

On Friday afternoon last, shortly after 5 o'clock, the spirit of one of the gentlest and sweetest women whom it has been our good fortune to know, passed to the better land, from her home in this city.

Mrs. Kate Overton Green was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. Dabney Overton and wife, of Fayette county, and was about 63 years of age. She was born and raised near Walnut Hill, and obtained her education at the famous Walnut Hill Female Seminary, conducted by her kinsman, Rev. J. J. Bullock and John Lewis, Esq.

By birth and lineage a gentlewoman, she added to these qualities a disposition that thought no evil, and in all her life she was never known to speak ill of any one.

In early girlhood she was married to a distant kinsman, Hon. Grant Green, at that time Assistant Secretary of State under Gov. Powell, and came to this city to live.

With but short intervals, she has made this city her home ever since, and her devoted friends and admirers were numbered by her large acquaintance.

Early in life she gave her heart to her Savior and became a member of the Walnut Hill Presbyterian Church, afterwards removing her membership to the First Presbyterian Church of this city. Her life was a living exemplification of the faith she professed, and none came within her influence without feeling impressed with the purity and loveliness of her character.

She bore the troubles of life with a cheerfulness that was sublime. Her first great sorrow being the drowning of her oldest child, a bright and manly boy, while living at Henderson.

Several years since she was stricken with partial paralysis, and from that time to the close of her life she was an invalid, at times suffering greatly, but without a murmur.

But a few days over a year ago the husband and idol of her youth, the strong arm upon which she so confidently leaned, was taken from her by death. Since then she has longed for the end to come, but waited with serene patience the Master's call. When it came she leaned her tired head on His dear breast and "fell on sleep," without a doubt or fear.

There were born to her six children, two girls and four boys (Mrs. Eliza Alexander, Mrs. Wm. T. Worrall, Henry, Grant, Jr., Dr. Waller O. and John T.), and five survivors, to whom her memory will ever be a benediction.

Besides her immediate family she leaves a brother, three sisters and a very large family connection, whose hearts are saddened at her death.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dr. J. McC. Blayney, at the family residence, on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The large attendance and the wealth of floral offerings gave testimony to the high place she held in this community.

The following gentlemen were the pall-bearers:

Honorary—Col. Thos. Rodman, sr., Gen. D. W. Lindsey, Judge Jos. D. Hunt, Cabell B. Bullock, Judge W. H. Sneed, Col. R. M. Aldridge, Frank Chinn and S. C. Bull.

Active—Maj. J. A. Grant, Geo. F. Berry, W. T. Reading, Chas. W. Saffell, John Brislan, E. L. Samuel, Thos. P. Averill and J. B. Lewis.

The remains were laid away beside her husband in our cemetery and the two graves were banked with beautiful flowers.

New Tobacco Warehouse.

Louisville now has an independent tobacco warehouse company which opened for business the first of the month. It is composed of Hon. Sam H. Stone, President; Eugene M. LeCompte, Vice President; and Manager, Jas. C. Stone, Treasurer and Will H. Stone, Secretary. The new company is known as the Stone Warehouse and will not enter the combine. It occupies the building formerly used by the Greenbrier Warehouse.

Mr. LeCompte, the Vice President, was formerly with the Farmers Warehouse. The other members of the company are Auditor Stone and his two sons. The capital is $20,000. The new company any promises to be a successful and popular one.

Auditor Stone will remove to Louisville after his term expires in January next.

New Teacher.

The Board of Education, on Tuesday night, elected Miss Wallina Hall, of Illinois, to fill the place of teacher of Elocution, Drawing, Vocal Music and Physical Culture. The young lady comes highly recommended as a successful teacher.

Pea Ridge.

Died—On Tuesday, August 1st, Lula, the loved wife of Mr. Sam Lavefield. She was a bride of not quite 7 months. She was taken sick Friday morning and for four days her suffering was terrible, but, in the interval of pain, her talk to friends and relatives showed she was ready and willing to meet her Maker. She leaves a heart-broken husband, her aged parents and a sweet little girl, by a former marriage, to mourn her loss. She was a good woman, a member of the Christian Church, and all who were with her in her last hours feel assured that she is at rest.

Asleep in Jesus! Oh how sweet, To be for such a slumber mete. [Henry county papers requested to copy.]—ED. ROTUNDAPOUT.

Wheat is not threshing out as heavy as anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Lavefield, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Tate, all of Fair View, were on the Ridge this week, called thither by the sickness and death of Mrs. Sam Lavefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, our new neighbors, were unfailing in their devotion and attention to their sick friend.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all the diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are cured by it. Call on J. W. Gayle, druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c, and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Prohibition Ticket.

The Prohibition party met at Louisville on Tuesday and nominated the following State ticket on Wednesday:

Governor—O. T. Wallace, of Garrard county.

Lieut.-Governor—Wm. H. Ziegler, of Jessamine county.

Secretary of State—Wm. M. Likens, of Ohio county.

Auditor—Rev. Sam'l M. Bernard, of Jefferson county.

Treasurer—J. R. Pile, of Daviess county.

Attorney-General—Jas. H. Beauchamp, of Fayette county.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—G. H. Hancock, of Knox county.

Commissioner of Agriculture—A. W. Carpenter, of Lincoln county.

This makes the fourth ticket in the field, and, when the anti-Goebel Democrats make their nominations, there will be no reason why every man cannot find somebody to please him from the five tickets.

The Winston School for Young Ladies.

In this issue of our paper appears the ad. of Prof. Winston's select private school.

Prof. Winston offers to the citizens of our town and community the very best advantages in the way of a high grade school.

He will run an up-to-date school in every respect. Get one of his catalogues and note the thorough course of study prescribed. The Winston school will doubtless be quite an attraction to our town.

Only 25c. per box. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

Save yourself for a trip to Lexington and witness the Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12—the greatest entertainment ever inaugurated in the South—better than a trip to the lakes—equal to the world's fair scheme and superior in point of refinement.

Atlantic City Excursion.

August 10 the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway will sell tickets to Atlantic City and return, limited to August 25th, at $16.50 for the round trip via the Pennsylvania Lines. J. R. NEWTON, General Passenger Agent.

$10 Excursion to Michigan.

Fine outing offered by the Monon Route and steamer Manitou. The really delightful trip which has been started this season by the famous Monon Route to Northern Michigan and which has attracted much favorable attention has been offered under flattering inducements for one date only that all may have a chance to try the cruise on Lake Michigan.

Tickets will be sold from Louisville to Charlevoix, Petoskey, Bay View, Harbor Springs and Mackinac and return on Wednesday, August 10th, good returning fifteen days at $10. They will be good to stop at any point north of and including Charlevoix within the limit. Accommodations on the steamer, which sails from Chicago at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, can now be reserved, and as the party is limited to the amount of accommodations set aside for this occasion, application should be made at once to E. H. Bacon, D. P. A., Louisville, Ky.

A diseased stomach surely undoes man's health. It dulls the brain kills energy, destroys the nervous system and predisposes to insanity and fatal diseases. All dyspeptic troubles are quickly cured by Kooli Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured thousands of cases and is curing them, every day. Its ingredients are such that it can't help curing. J. E. Tyler.

Skin Diseases.

For the speedy and permanent cure of tetter, salt rheum and eczema, Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is without an equal. It relieves the itching and smarting almost instantly and its continued use effects a permanent cure. It also cures itch, barber's itch, scald head, sore nipples, itching piles, chapped hands, chronic sore eyes and granulated lids.

Horse Show, Fair and Carnival.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 8-12th, 1899. Low rates via Queen & Crescent Route from all points in Kentucky daily August 8th to 12th, good to return the 14th inst. Greatest show Lexington has ever had. Don't fail to attend. Ample room for all excursionists.

"What They Say"

Is the title of an exceedingly well printed and fully illustrated booklet, which has just been issued and distributed by the Chicago & North-Western Ry., describing their electric lighted 20th century train, "The North-Western Limited." It is a unique in design and composition and affords entertaining reading. A copy will be sent to any address by W. A. Cox, 435 Vine street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the civil war. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Does Your Head Ache?

Are your nerves weak? Can't you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Boils or pimples? These are sure signs of poisoning.

From what poisons? From poisons that are always found in constipated bowels.

If the contents of the bowels are not removed from the body each day, as nature intended, these poisonous substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease.

There is a common sense cure.

AYER'S PILLS

They daily insure an easy and natural movement of the bowels. You will find that the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

with the pills will hasten recovery. It cleanses the blood from all impurities and is a great tonic to the nerves.

The annual State Missionary Convention of the Christian Church will be held next week at Shelbyville from Monday night till Thursday night. Four hundred delegates are expected.

Courageous Act.

On Thursday evening a little boy was left alone in a buggy on Washington street. The horse attached to the buggy became frightened and started to run. But for the coolness and presence of mind of Mr. Wm. McEneaney, who happened to be near, and succeeded in grasping the reins and stopping the horse, the little fellow would, in all probability, have been killed.

Obituary.

Benj. H. Sargent was born July 19, 1863; died April 14, 1899, at his home near Bridgeport, of spinal meningitis. In 1892, Ben gave his heart to Christ and for 17 years was a fervent and consistent member of the Bridgeport Christian Church. On the Sunday before his death he attended church in apparent good health, giving a smile and a pleasant word to all. He worked hard the next day and complained but little. Tuesday he was tossing unconsciously on his bed and in that state he remained till Friday when he was taken from this world of sin and suffering to awaken in the presence of his Savior. Ben was always true in his dealings with men, true to his friends, true to his family, and true to his God. He was devoted to his parents and was constantly striving to make their last days on earth their best. His whole life was a manifestation of this and worthy of emulation. He leaves a father, mother, five brothers and five sisters not to mourn his loss for he was prepared to meet his God, and is now "safe in the arms of Jesus." He was laid to rest in the Frankfort cemetery by Knights of the Macabees.

"Only good-night beloved not farewell, A little while and all the saints shall dwell In hallowed union, indivisible, Good night!"

Counterfeit Heroes.

Civilians have come to the conclusion that the army builders is no place for loafers, and loafers who are civilians have reached the same decision. The employees of the government have been instructed to keep their eyes open, and in case any man is seen in the doorway or halls of the army building with nothing particular to do, to tell him to "move on." This state of affairs has come to pass through the sworn of swindlers who have, since the first transports came in last fall, been robbing the repatriated soldiers.

To escape the vigilance of the government clerk and detectives some of the swindlers have hit on a scheme by which some of them profited to the extent of quite a sum of money, which they buncoed from some soldiers. This scheme is nothing more nor less than obtaining old uniforms and wearing them, thus posing as comrades in arms. It is a fact that a soldier will always trust a soldier, and many have suffered through this.

This plan was very hard to break up, as the army building is the headquarters of soldiers who are waiting for transportation, and as a rule there are from 50 to 100 men about the building at all times. However, a counter scheme was planned by a clerk in the transportation department, and his wife to apply to the would-be "heroes" and ask them a few questions concerning the campaign. The results attained was astonishing.

One United States Senator, a Captain of Marines and a score of civil war heroes were luxuriously mixed with national guard and volunteer officers of the present war. One old charlatan was especially amusing. He was gray haired and wore a New York national guard uniform with full dress coat and campaign hat. He was stout to the bursting point and his appearance was decidedly martial. His face was swarthy and his voice to the surprise of his belt. The investigator approached him and asked him what regiment he belonged to. The "hero" panted a bit and finally said that he wasn't quite sure.

"Not sure? Why what's the matter with you?"

"Why, you see, young fellow, it was this way: My captain's name was Roosevelt, but that's all I know, because I was wounded and that hurted me brain, see?"

A Railroad Man's Prayer.

An old railroad worker was converted and, being present at a meeting, he was asked to lead in prayer.

He hesitated a moment and then, with trembling lips but clear, resounding voice, he said reverently: "O Lord, now that I have flagged Thee, lift up my feet from the rough road of life and plant them safely on the deck of the train of salvation. Let me use the safety lamp, known as prudence, make all the couplings in the train with the strong link of Thy love, and let my hand-lamp be the Bible, and let Heavenly Father keep all switchmen closed that lead off on the sidings, especially those with a blind end."

"O Lord, if I be Thy pleasure, have every semaphore block along the line show the white light of hope, that I may make the run of life without stopping."

"And, O Lord, give us the Ten Commandments for a schedule; and when I have finished the run, on schedule time, pulled into the great dark station of death, may Thy Superintendent of the Universe, say, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant; come and sign the payroll and receive your check for eternal happiness.'"

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. FRANKFORT, KY.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

Rat-Catcher Major.

Our old friend, Col. David Moore of the Benson neighborhood, in addition to becoming a star route mail carrier, has turned his attention to rat-catching, and, when moving a pile of old corn recently, caught and killed 216 rats and a snake. The Colonel had the assistance of his three terriers, Start, Bob and Joe, but the Colonel stepped around so lively himself that the rats had no show at all.

Everything new under the sun will be seen at the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12.

Opened Up.

Our old time friend, Mr. Chas. E. Nelson, the expert barrel-maker, has repaired and refitted the big cooper shops in Bellepoint, West Side, and has commenced the manufacture of first class whisky barrels on a big contract. The contract is a crock-jack and will call for a big force of coopers.

Mr. Nelson thoroughly understands his business and never allows a barrel to leave his shops without being thoroughly inspected. His long experience at the Silver Creek shops, in Madison county, gave him opportunities to thoroughly master his work in every detail.

This will be good news to a large number of coopers residing here, and also to our merchants, with whom they always spend their earnings in purchasing supplies for their families.

New Style Physician.

Dr. R. P. Buckmaster, of Kirksville, Mo., a graduate of the Buffalo College of Osteopathy, has located in this city for the practice of his profession. He comes with the best of recommendations and only asks an opportunity to demonstrate his ability in his profession. We bespeak for him a share of the patronage of our citizens.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
"Digests what you eat."

Postponed.

We are requested by Miss Lucy Pattle, County School Superintendent, to announce that the meeting of the Franklin County Teachers' Institute has been postponed until October. The exact date will be announced later on.

Change of Base.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, the eloquent and popular pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jefferson City, Mo., and former pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, has accepted the call of the College Avenue Baptist Church, of Indianapolis, Ind. Dr. Taylor is getting nearer back to where he belongs—in old Kentucky.

The Rest of the Census Supervisors.

Under the agreement between Senators Lindsay and Deboe, Senator Lindsay was to appoint four of the Census Supervisors. Senator Deboe's appointments have been heretofore announced. Those made by Senator Lindsay are as follows:

Second District—Ellish M. Flack, of Hopkinsville.
Sixth District—Robert H. Elliston, of Williamstown.
Seventh District—Erastus Bainbridge, of Owenton.
Eighth District—John Bright, of Stanford.

We are not acquainted with Messrs. Flack and Bright, but we do know Messrs. Elliston and Bainbridge, they having served in the Legislature, the former as State Senator and the latter as Representative, and they are first-class gentlemen and will make acceptable and efficient officers.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Sad Death.

We regret to learn that our friend, Mr. John A. Hugely, of Boyle county, but who owns a large farm adjoining the town of Burgin, Mercer county, was accidentally killed, on Monday morning, by being caught between the cars of a freight train at the latter place, where he was attending to the shipping of a big lot of cattle which he had raised on his farm.

Mr. Hugely was a very clever and companionable gentleman, whom we have known for many years.

Prominent Woman Dead.

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, daughter of the late Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase, and wife of Gov. W. A. Sprague, war Governor of Rhode Island, died at her home in the suburbs of Washington City on Monday. She had been separated from her husband several years. She was a handsome woman and was very prominent in Washington City society.

Rev. J. M. Yingling, pastor of the Bedford Street Methodist Church, at Cumberland, Md., says "It affords me much pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used it and know others who have done so, and I have never known it to fail. It is a sure cure when in time." For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

The Torch of Knowledge

burns brighter to-day than ever before, and yet there are many people lower down in the scale of life than they ought to be of want to be. The problems of progress can only be solved by thinking, educated men. A need therefore exists for great educational power which is far reaching in its influence.

Such a need is supplied by the world-renowned Encyclopædia Britannica. It represents concentrated thought from the beginning of the world to the present hour. No subject in the realm of reason is left out. The information is easily found, and is clear, concise, authentic. The New Werner Edition, the latest, the most complete, and the best.
